

Afghanistan

When crises occur around the world, the Edmond J. Safra Philanthropic Foundation responds with humanitarian relief through a number of organizations. Most recently in Afghanistan, it has funded the provision of 2,000 winterized tents, 5,000 sets of children's winter clothing and 8,000 quilts for Afghan refugees at the height of the relief effort. This intervention occurred at an early stage of the humanitarian crisis.